Writing skill

There was a king named Midas. He had a lot of gold and everything he needed. He also had a beautiful daughter. Midas loved his gold very much, but he loved his daughter more than his gold. One day, god came to Midas garden and asked to make a wish. Midas says "I wish everything I touch turns to gold". God granted Midas his wish.

Midas became very happy. He touched an apple, and it turned into a shiny gold apple. He turned everything in his palace into gold. He became so happy that he went and hugged his daughter, she turned into a golden statue. Midas loved her daughter very much, he realised his mistake but he cannot do anything. He begged the god to take away his power and save his daughter. God helped Midas and turned everything back to normal. Midas learned his lesson and promised not be greedy again.
